Sermon 9 – Ephesians 5: 21-33 “Wives-husbands”

1. Introduction

- a. Why has this passage been so unpopular? Why do some Christians today utterly reject its concepts?
- b. How has this passage been taken and turned into a husband’s justification to be abusive and dominating?
- c. What does Galatians 2:26-29 tell us about the status of men and women before God in terms of our salvation?

2. The big picture

- a. Israel as God’s bride – Jeremiah 2:2 and 31:32. Hosea 1-3; Ezekiel 23 and Isaiah 54:5-8. Why do you think God’s relationship with Israel is portrayed this way?
- b. Jesus as bridegroom – Mark 2:18-20; John 3:27-30; Matthew 25:1-13; Matthew 22:1-14; Revelation 21:1-4. Jesus is now seen in God’s role as the groom of his people. How does this imagery help us to understand the nature of our relationship with Jesus?
- c. The church as the bride, Jesus the Bridegroom. Christ loving the church by giving himself up for her. The church submitting to Christ as her husband. A marriage ‘made in heaven’! How does this big picture help us understand the teaching for husbands and wives?
- d. Review and in revel in what Christ has done for us his bride (his church) as described in 5:22-27.

3. Husbands

- a. Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her 5:25. A huge call. Why do husbands find it hard to love like this? Husbands – share what you find hard about this exhortation.
- b. How can husbands develop this type of love for their wives?
- c. In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. 5:28 Husbands are good at seeing their needs are met. How can they develop a love for their wives that is as keen to see her needs are met as they are that their own be met?
- d. Someone has said that one of the problems in many marriages and families today is that husbands and fathers have abdicated any leadership role. They are slack or lazy or distracted. Discuss.
- e. Dr Phil – I want my wife to feel that when she’s standing in a room with 10,000 women, there is no one better cared for or more loved behind closed doors than she is. Discuss.

4. Wives

- a. Wives, submit to your husbands, as to the Lord 5:22 A huge call. Why do wives find it hard to love like this? Wives – share what you find hard about this exhortation.
- b. How can wives develop this type of love for their husbands?
- c. My guess is that one of the hardest problems for wives in this area is that husbands are not loving in the way that is described here. Discuss in your group ways in which our marriages can be strengthened and helped.
- d. Refer to the FAQs at the end of Mark’s sermon and see if you would answer any differently or indeed, add to the list.

Close in prayer, praying that our marriages would grow to more nearly reflect that most wonderful marriage of Christ and his church.

Passage: Ephesians 5:21-33
Title: Wives-Husbands

1. Introduction

- Over the last three weeks we've begun to see what a radical difference being Christian will make.
- In the church – we'll be more interested in servicing others than ensuring everything goes the way we want it to.
- We'll speak truthfully, we'll deal with our anger, we'll speak only that which builds others up, we won't grieve God's spirit by being bitter or twisted or malicious.
- In fact, we'll imitate God, and as we have been so wonderfully loved and forgiven; so we will love and forgive.
- And we will differentiate ourselves from the world's sexual ethics and instead flood the darkness of this world with our light.
- We'll find out what pleases the Lord, and understand what the Lord's will is...//
- And of course here is where God's will is found.
- But it's true isn't it, that sometimes we won't like what we read here... and sometimes we won't want to do what we read here...
- And sometimes what we read here will have been so ridiculed over time, that it will affect – or infect – the way we read it – or hear it...
- Like for example when you heard this morning: "Wives submit to your husbands..." ... did you automatically start thinking... "oh yes – it's true... the Bible is patriarchal, Paul it is anti-women, this is oppressive... it's so out of date.....!?"
- And often it doesn't occur to us to think.... Not that the Bible must be wrong... but.... wow... our culture has got it wrong...
- Rather than look at the Bible and say what a funny old fashioned document it is, let's allow God to speak to us this morning and to our culture and say what a strange funny culture you have... /
- So I want to ask that if at all possible – we put aside whatever prejudices we've had against the passage and forget the opposition we've heard... and rather, ask the Lord to help us understand it in a way which is untainted. //
- Now last week we saw that the instruction to be 'filled with the Spirit' had some present participles following it – outlining for us the impact of being filled with the Spirit... be filled with the Spirit, speaking, singing and making music, giving thanks and submitting...
- This morning we see how that submitting works itself out in marriage (today) and then over the next two weeks, in parenting and with masters and slaves.

2. Big "M" Marriage

- Did you know that the relationship between God and his people is described as a marriage?
- In the Old Testament, marriage was often used to depict the relationship between God and the people of Israel.
- So in Jeremiah 2:2, the Lord says to Israel through the prophet I remember the devotion of your youth, how as a bride you loved me and followed me through the desert.

- And in Jeremiah 31:32 – Israel broke my covenant though I was a husband to them.
- When Jesus comes on the scene, he boldly refers to himself as the Bridegroom. It comes up in Mark 2 when Jesus is questioned about why his disciples don't fast, and Jesus says they cannot fast while (he) the bridegroom is with them.
- In John 3, John the Baptist refers to the arrival of Jesus on the scene as being the arrival of the bridegroom.
- Its pictured in Jesus' parable about the maidens being ready as they await the arrival of the bridegroom – i.e. as they wait for Jesus' return!
- The end time feast of eternity is pictured as a marriage feast, and the holy city where God's people live is prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband in Revelation 21.
- Brothers and sisters gathered this morning – we are the bride of Christ. Jesus is our bridegroom.
- And our relationship with him – is a marriage. //
- That is a very important background to understanding what Paul is saying here – because he draws from Christ's marriage to us, to teach about the marriage of men and women to one another. //
- Christ our bridegroom loves us!!!
- His desire is only for our good.
- In the words of vv26-27 here; to make us holy (set apart entirely for him), to cleanse us and to present us as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless.
- And how did he do this? v25 – he gave himself up for us.
- In humble obedience to his Father, he endured the shame, the humiliation and the agony of the cross... ///
- Yes he loved us. He put our needs before his own. It cost him. It was sacrificial love. Costly love. Selfless. Unconditional. Generous.
- Our bridegroom is utterly for us. He is completely on our side. He only ever wants our best. Nothing will ever separate us from his love.
- and we his bride – the church – the people of God, willingly, joyfully submit to him.
- And it's a beautiful thing. For he deals with us graciously and tenderly and we surrender our life into his service...
- As he laid his life down in our service, so we now lay down our life in His!
- ... and THAT becomes the pattern for marriage between a man and woman...
- Paul's exhortation to wives and husbands, is based on the marriage between Christ and the church being a pattern – a template - for our marriages.

3. Husbands

- So let me deal with husbands first.
- It can't be an accident can it that it takes Paul at least three times longer to deal with husbands than with wives?
- We need a lot more help and a lot more instruction. We're a lot slower to learn!
- The instruction is simple: husbands, we are to love our wives.
- Now was this so unusual? Was this so unheard of that Paul had to mention it?
- Well there are lists around in other writings from the 1st century giving instructions to various members of society, but they say almost nothing about husbands needing to love their wives. The emphasis was more on the rights and status of husbands and fathers.

- (it's interesting that the similar passage in Colossians, Paul adds 'and do not be harsh with them'... perhaps suggesting that being harsh was very common).
- And how are we husbands to love? Two standards are given.
- First: as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her.
- That seems to me to be a huge call.
- Do you remember what we just explored of that love? He rescued us, restored us to life, cleaned us up and made us his... by giving himself up for us. He laid down his life for us.
- Yes he loved us. He put our needs before his own. It was sacrificial. It was costly. Selfless. Unconditional. Generous.
- Husbands? That's the standard. That's the benchmark. That's the inspiration.
- That is how we are to love our lives.
- A costly, sacrificial love.
- Our job is to constantly ask - "what are her needs?" -
- "What are her needs?" "How can I meet them?"
- "How can I make her life better?" "How can I serve her?" "What will be helpful?"
- If its anything like Christ's love, it will cost us.
- It will involve sacrifice.
- It will be selfless.
- It will be unconditional.
- It will be generous.
- It means you are to be gracious and kind and tender to her always. And to pick up the Colossians' passage - never harsh. //
- A friend of mine was walking through a shopping mall in North Sydney and he heard a man talking on his mobile phone - yelling - "well it's very easy where you are sitting but it's very difficult from here..." and my friend wanted to say to him 'I bet you're talking to your wife...' //
- Certainly wasn't talking to his secretary or his mistress, certainly wasn't talking to his boss... there was something in the sharp dismissive way that he spoke that husbands really only reserve for their wives... /
- And he wished he had the courage to say 'are you talking to your wife, the one woman that you promised to love and cherish and to be tender with?' //
- Husbands: Love your wives. As Christ loved the church.
- That's the first standard. //
- And the other standard of love? To love their wives as their own bodies...
- This is an extension of love your neighbour as yourself. Your wife is your closest of neighbours... And to love your wife is to love your own body - because the two have become one!
- So to the same degree you see to it that your needs are met - see to it her needs are met. //
- What does this love look like in practice?
- I was watching Dr Phil some time ago, and there was a very sad story on about a rather stupid man who was demanding all sorts of things from his wife.

- Dr Phil shared of his own marriage and referred to Robin.
- His aim, he said, is to make Robin feel that if she's in a room with 10,000 women in it, she knows she is the best cared for and most loved woman there... and that means behind closed doors – where no one else sees...
- He also claimed to wake every morning and ask himself how can he can make her day easier or better.
- Now I don't know if he's a Christian and what inspires him to such ideals... but that seems to me to be a good example of what Paul is saying here....
- And if we husbands started down that track... then I guarantee there would be a lot more happy marriages and happy families and happy homes.

4. Wives

- Which brings us to wives.
- v22 wives submit to your husbands as to the Lord.
- Notice its submit – in the same way you submit to the Lord. This is taken up again in v24... as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything.
- So we return to the model and ask 'what does the church's submission to Christ look like...?'
- Do you recall what we saw?: that we (the church) surrender our life into his (Christ's) service... we put ourselves at his disposal. We offer ourselves sacrificially to him. As he laid his life down in our service, so we now lay down ours in His!
- And so wives are to receive their husband's love – and return it.
- As your husband gives himself for you in every way – putting your needs before his, so you give yourself for him... putting his needs before yours.
- it almost looks reciprocal... almost
- but the passage does infer there is a leader and a follower. v23 For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church...//
- Dancing with Stars was very popular on TV...
- Now – I'm not a dancer... but I understand the principle that one has to lead in that type of dancing... and the result is – harmony and a beautiful unity...
- And the lead the husband takes in marriage is a leadership in setting the standard of love.
- Wives – let your husbands to take the lead in loving you.
- And follow their lead in love. Return their love for you, with love for them.
- Someone has described it as getting into a joyful synchronicity with your husbands... that's a good description because that is exactly what you and I are trying to do with Christ... get into joyful synchronicity with him. //
- So here is the pattern for husbands and wives.
- It's not 'wives – get into joyful synchronicity with your husbands if he's worth it, if you agree with him...'
- Nor is it 'husbands love your wives, unless they are particularly stupid and annoying ...!'
- It's for all time... it's a huge call on both sides... someone has cheekily said – look, it's only for 50-60 years – so it's not all that hard! ///
- By the grace of God, may our marriages reflect that very wonderful and eternal marriage – between Christ and we his people.

- But now - a post script.
- Some very quick FAQs – frequently asked questions.

1. Surely wives submitting to husbands suggests some sort of inferiority of wife to husband?

No. The Bible is very clear on that. As far as our standing before God is concerned there is no difference between male and female: Gal 3:26-28 In Jesus Christ you are all children of God through faith ... there is neither Jew nor Greek (as we saw in Ephesians 2) slave or free, male or female, you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Now that was a watershed revelation in the 1st century – that Gentiles and females and slaves weren't second rate. Women were not to be treated as stupid or fools or whatever... A radical teaching... Paul, with Jesus, turned the status of women on its head. They taught women. Unheard of! Women played leadership roles in the early church! Unheard of. No, there is no inferiority inferred here.

And anecdotally, submission doesn't infer inferiority. So the Prime Minister would have to submit to the person on the crossing out here if he was driving past Sunshine Beach or Tewanin school at 3.15pm, - no inferiority implied.

2. Surely Mark you are overlooking v21 where it says submit to one another? The word 'submit' is used 40 times in the NT – 23 times by the apostle Paul. And it is never used in a way which suggests a mutual or reciprocal submission. It's always within ordered relationships... otherwise here you would have parents submitting to children – that sounds like a nightmare... and masters submitting to slaves...

But / there is a sense in which a husband submits to his wife... in that he constantly submits himself to putting her needs first!

3. What if my husband is not a Christian? Well of course there are many non-Christian husbands who love their lives beautifully... and receiving and returning their love will not be an issue... but at the point he (or your Christian husband for that matter) demands you do something contrary to God's will, then the principle from Scripture is that you must obey God rather than man.
4. What if my husband is abusing me? He has broken the bonds of marriage and for your own safety's sake as much as anything else, you need to get help to leave. It's a massive twisting of Scripture which uses this passage to justify domestic abuse!
5. What if my wife doesn't do what I say? Well – I would want to know what it is you're asking her to do... This doesn't give you permission to beat your chest and say 'submit'. You're her 'lover' in the best sense of the word... if she doesn't want to do what it is you're asking her to do, then you have to ask the question are you loving her?
6. Does this mean that the husband has final authority in decision making? E.g. Husband loves going to the beach on holidays and she loves the mountains. You talk it out, share your desires. Where do you go? The mountains – for the husband puts her needs before his own!
7. My husband is not loving me like this! This was written by Susan...! Not really... Give me his name and I'll have lunch with him... Seriously... this is a huge call. And one of the problems I had in preparing is knowing I don't love Susan like this. If he's here this morning... perhaps he will have been challenged. If he's not here, get him to listen online! But significantly – talk to him – speak the truth in love. And ensure you are loving him!
8. I feel a failure when I compare myself to this: here is the reality that we are all human and frail and the only way we can truly love like this is as we are inspired and empowered by God's love and Jesus' example and transformed by the Holy Spirit! Only when you grasp and comprehend how you have been loved... then you can begin to love like this!

And so I end as I did last week – with an invitation to come to the Lord and find mercy and forgiveness; to repent and to change with the Holy Spirit's help.
