Series: The Riches of Psalm 23
Passage: Psalm 23:
Title: Pursued by God

Outline

1. Not followed!
  2. Home?

I'm tremendously grateful to a dear friend, Ken Chapman, who was to come this weekend and preach on this verse, for his inspiring preparation, some of which I've used word for word.

INTRODUCTION

- Ever sensed you're being followed?
- We can't imagine what that must have been like last week for Aiiia Maasarwe... killed in Melbourne as she hopped off a tram... //
- And usually when we talk about being followed, there is something sinister – not good happening...
- But this morning we'll see the opposite – followed by 'goodness' and 'love' or 'goodness' and 'mercy'... //
- And have you ever sensed that in this world – you're not quite at home...? especially in recent years... that you don't quite belong in this world – in this society...? – so opposed to God and godly values?
- Well, we'll explore these things this morning as we come to the last of our summer sermon series on Psalm 23... and to this last verse – surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
- What David is doing in this last verse is bringing the whole Psalm together... //
- There was the opening introductory words "The Lord's my Shepherd, I lack nothing" which sets up the Psalm...
- ...that was fleshed out with the verses that followed – the green pastures, the still waters, the right paths.... /
- ...then David made the point that even in death – all will be well – he feared no evil for the shepherd had faced death for us – the Good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep – therefore we do not fear... /
- And then at the point of death – what is in store for us? – we looked last week at the table in the presence of enemies – for we shall be reconciled to all those who also love Jesus – the picture of the end-time feast of eternity - and a cup filled with overflowing joy.
- So David's point has been that in both life and in death – the Lord is our Shepherd and we will lack no good thing!
- Now he summarises... restating that point – because in life – we shall know God's goodness and mercy – and in death – we shall dwell in God's presence forever!
- Two points:

Preaching Christ...

1. Not followed!

2. Home?

1. Not followed!

- Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life
- First we need clarity on the words – is it ‘goodness’ and ‘love’ as we have it here? Or ‘goodness’ and ‘mercy’ as in the older versions (and if you’re old enough – an old chorus or two!)
- Well – goodness and love and goodness and mercy are both good translations... the second word is the one in question – and it means a love that results in kindness... hence some of the older translations had ‘lovingkindness’.
- ‘Mercy’ then is not a bad translation as it fleshes out the nature of the love spoken of.
- Goodness – in that we are given way beyond anything we deserve, and love or mercy in that God withholds from us that which we definitely DO deserve...
- Reminds me of 1 Cor 13 – the love of God which is described as both patient and kind... //
- You’ll have no doubt heard of the little boy who was being followed to school by his neighbour Mrs Goodnest and her daughter Marcy...
- And his mate asks him – why are those two people following us? And he said ‘well every night mum and I say the Psalm 23 and it says ‘Shirley Goodnest and Marcy’ will follow me all the days of my life’ ... so I guess I’d better get used to it...!!
- ....but that brings us to the point of my heading – ‘NOT following...’
- Because the verb used is more accurately translated as ‘pursue’, not ‘follow’...
- And you may say to me “Mark – does it matter – ‘follow’ or ‘pursue’? What’s the difference?”
- Actually it’s a huge difference....
- Pursuit is active... it’s deliberate... there’s a desire not just to follow – but to catch!!
- Story of a man on the freeway being chased by a police car... for some reason in a brain snap and instead of pulling over, he put his foot down... eventually when the policeman did catch him... the officer said he was not just following but pursing, because the driver had left his wallet behind at the coffee shop where they had both picked up takeaways and the café owner asked the policemen to pursue the driver and give him his wallet!!
- David actually expects to be overtaken by the pursuit of God’s goodness and mercy.
- Same word in Exodus when Pharaoh pursues the Israelites into the Red Sea.
- Most scholars believe that David likely wrote this psalm later in his life at the time he had been overthrown by Absalom his son... and he had been forced to flee from Jerusalem by the armies of his rebellious son.
- David was actually being pursued to death... he had been forced to flee his palace // ...he was in hiding.
- But... David says, at the very same time, God’s goodness and mercy will have me, they are chasing me, hunting me down and overcoming me!
- Because God is the hunter, I cannot outrun Him, I cannot escape Him

Preaching Christ...
...by the power of the Holy Spirit
...and the authority of the Word of God

- He will catch me and tackle me // and because of that, I shall  dwell in the house of the Lord  forever. //
- The end of the goodness and mercy, hunting you down, not  once, not  twice, not  some of the time, not a good  portion of the time, but  hunting you down -  chasing you down  all the days of your life... is so that you will  dwell in the  house of the Lord  forever.
- Jesus the  good shepherd will  pursue you,  chase you and  hunt you  down to  win you to  himself!
- Don't you just want to fall on your knees and say " thank you Lord"? //
- many of us get this  wrong... we think that the Christian life is - the life of faith consists of - me pursuing God's  goodness and eventually I'll maybe manage to  catch up with it.
- David is saying you've got it exactly the  wrong way round.
- It might be true in  some sense that you're pursuing His goodness, but... more importantly - God's  goodness is pursuing  you. //
- God's not our  lapdog or our  shadow, no... we are  fleeing and God is  pursuing!
- This is the accurate  picture.
- God's  goodness and mercy are like two  hounds of  heaven,  pursuing us,  chasing us,  never giving up.
- There is an  intensity of  love in the heart of God for His  people... and David had discovered that it wasn't worth fighting  against the  love of  God!
- Oh, he had  tried!
- Of  all the Old Testament greats, there are few like David!
- He had broken every  commandment in the  book. He  coveted, he  stole, he  lied, he  conspired, he  murdered, he committed  adultery, he  blasphemed the  Lord...
- ...I doubt  anyone here this morning has racked up a list like  that... / but we  are all familiar - if we are honest with ourselves - of running  away from  God, away from His  love! //
- Maybe you are  still running. //
- David says I too  ran away from Him and all that was involved in  submitting to His Love.
- But he recognised that God  relentlessly kept  pursuing him. And in repentance and sorrow, turned back. //
- How do you respond to the idea that the God who created the  universe has His  signature on your  soul -and is  pursuing you?
- It's an overwhelming  thought isn't it, that God who created the immense  universe, has  me in His sights...! /. No  wonder our natural inclination is to  flee!
- Here is the reminder from Romans 8:31-32 - If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup> He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all – how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us  all things?
- Remember – while we were  enemies, Christ  died for us...
- Yes,  pursued by his  goodness and  mercy... until we are all the way (and this is my second point)... :

2. Home!

- From a very old Christian song, comes the words – “this world is not my home – I’m just passing through”.
- I wonder if you have grasped hold of that...
- Everything we know in life – all we can see around us / is temporary...
- A man from our Tewantin congregation died this week – Gareth aged just 61.
- Where is he now?
- Well his body is down at the funeral place... but Gareth himself has gone HOME... //
- There is a dear old lady from 730am congregation languishing in Oz Care – nursing home near Noosa Junction... my prayer – her husband’s prayer – is that the Lord will come and take her home...
- Not home to her place in Noosaville... but home to him! - in eternity!
- Jesus said – in my Father’s place are many rooms and I am going to prepare a place for you...
- And what he meant by ‘go to prepare a place for you’ was not a building project that has taken 2,000 years – no, he prepared a place for us by his death and resurrection... that with our sin dealt with we may be fit to be in the presence of God for eternity! //
- It’s right that you should feel less and less at home here...!!
- Abortion at full term permitted in New York state – and celebrated at that? Let alone the abortion laws passed in our own state at the end of the last years – and celebrated in parliament!
- Christians taken off the street in China never to be seen again...? North Korea is the most dangerous place on the planet for Christians... illegal to own a Bible
- With the start of the new school year – inevitable that people get up in arms re Scripture in schools and chaplains in state schools...
- Religious freedom under question which may limit what I can teach from the Bible here in church and how Christian schools can teach and operate as uniquely Christian...
- We ARE aliens and exiles here...! //
- But we have a HOME...!
- This psalm declares that there is an eternity: “I will live in the house of the Lord forever”...
- can we trust God?
- Do we believe him?... and so live in the light of that promise and expectation today?
- With all the uncertainty, the disappointment, the suffering and brokenness of life.. how can we live confidently, knowing that our future is secure? //
- The truth is we can’t make any sense of the Christian life without eternity.
- This is the whole argument of 1 Corinthians 15.
- If Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead... how can you say there is no resurrection... God asks?
- but thanks be to God, he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ...!

Preaching Christ...
...by the power of the Holy Spirit
...and the authority of the Word of God

- You see we have a God who loves each of us individually...
- ...who knows each of us through and through...
- ...all our fears, all our pain, all our weaknesses, all our longings, and most importantly, our deepest needs.
- Yes, we can trust this God, we can trust in God's goodness, and in God's mercy, and God's faithfulness, and God's compassion, and God's love...
- ...and the reason we can trust God is because He did not spare His own Son, but gave him up for us all...//
- ...and He calls out to you and me... // to trust Him.
- I don't think David wrote this on an Australia Day long weekend when everything was looking magnificent and going well for him...!
- It comes after the anguish of Psalm 22... and perhaps David wrote this – through tears – hanging on to the truth as it were by his fingernails... through the pain of unbelief... through the struggle of a season of his life which was anything but comfortable or peaceful or happy... //
- David is doing exactly what we need to do when we are facing unbearable trial or ongoing difficulty ...facing darkness which seems impenetrable, and fear that grips to the bottom of your soul.
- He is preaching to himself God's truth, possibly through gritted teeth, he's saying "even though I fear I am in terrible danger, and I am lost, I trust that you will be my shepherd."
- He is saying even though I walk through the darkest alley and I am scared witless, I will trust that you will be my comfort and guide, that your rod and staff will protect and comfort me...
- Even though my body is beaten and broken and I have no rest... I will trust that you will give me peace...
- ...even though I have no hope in myself and I am terrified I will be overwhelmed by disaster... I will trust that your goodness and mercy will pursue me relentlessly and I am trusting that YOU won't flag in your pursuit of me!
- I am trusting that even when I have no more strength and I am crying out like a lost sheep in the wilderness, you'll find me; you'll pick me up, you'll carry me and you'll wipe away all my tears.
- ....and that you'll never give up on me, you'll be my strength... and in the end pursued by your goodness and love, you will bring me home. //
- It's an astonishing example, isn't it of putting faith not in what we see or feel, or what might be our daily terrible affliction or difficulty, but rather what we have in God's promises /// ...in what is unseen and yet mysteriously, wonderfully true.

- Well let's see where we've come through these summer weeks spent on Psalm 23...
  - The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing... because all my needs are met in relationship with Jesus the Good Shepherd, as I run to him, keep my eyes on him, follow him, trust him.
  - Whether in life... or in death... whether now or at the end... he has everything covered...

Preaching Christ....
...by the power of the Holy Spirit
...and the authority of the Word of God

- And he will radically pursue me with his goodness and love, until I'm finally home!
- Let me close this series off this way:
- Imagine life without a shepherd like ours:

1 The LORD is NOT my shepherd; I lack everything

2 I have nowhere to lie down in green pastures,
...no quiet waters,

3 my soul is in anguish // I have no clue where I'm going

4 When I walk through the valley of the shadow of death

I am absolutely petrified and know no comfort

5 I have no hope for the future

And no prospect for joy

6 I have no goodness nor love in my life
and no assurance for eternity...

I am utterly lost...

Are you here among us this morning and don't know the Lord Jesus as your Good Shepherd??

Perhaps he is hounding you today with his goodness and love... /

I trust so... // come to him.. run to him... repent of your life lived fleeing him... and turn to him as your shepherd...!

Or if you've known him as your shepherd for a long time... here's in invitation this morning, to renew you trust in him... to see again his promises... to turn to him again in the midst of today's challenges... and to rest in his goodness and love...

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing

Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
