Anglican Church of Noosa “Art of Compassion” (20-22 Oct 2017)
EXHIBITION ENTRY FORM

As part of its month-long Compassion Initiative culminating on 20-22 Oct 2017, Anglican Church of Noosa invites original works of art from its parish members and neighbours that either convey or invite some aspect of compassion. Artists may submit 1-3 (only) framed or ready to display/hang photographs, paintings, drawings, illustrations, mixed media or other visual arts to the Church, 17 William St, Tewantin QLD. While the adjudicating team is grateful for all entries, selections will be based on theme, quality and hall space.

Submission DEADLINE is 1 OCT 2017

This form (and a $10 suggested donation fee) MUST accompany all submissions! Thank you!

“ART OF COMPASSION” EXHIBIT information

Thank you for your entry to the first “Art of Compassion” exhibit at Anglican Church of Noosa, Tewantin. We respect your work and creative gifts, and are grateful for your perspectives on compassion. Please know that you are always welcome to join us for worship each Sunday, and especially for the celebration of the Compassion Initiative, 20 – 22 Oct 2017. For more information see www.anglicanchurchnoosa.org.

Please note the following:

- An opening reception for “Art of Compassion” will take place Friday, 20 Oct at 6:30pm at 17 William Street, Tewantin. The public is invited.
- The exhibit will remain open in the Tewantin church hall from Friday, 20 Oct to Sunday evening, 22 Oct, and will be taken down, Monday, 23 Oct.
- On Saturday, 21 Oct, from 9am – noon, The Anglican Church of Noosa will host a mini-conference with speaker Fiona Simpkins who is a pastoral care staff member at Seaforth Church in Sydney and a mental health professional. She will speak on the Compassion of God and the Compassion of God in us. Registration is $15 in advance, $20 on the morning, and is open to the public.
- If you are considering donating your work of art for sale to help fund church compassion efforts, thank you! All money raised from the “Art of Compassion” exhibit (silent auction) will support food supplies for families or neighbours in need, instructional mental health workshops and community building to continue expressing compassion across the Sunshine Coast.

Please use this if you need additional space for your entry form.
