Minister writes

Dear friends,

"The Lord is my Shepherd, I lack nothing." Psalm 23:1

King David makes an astonishing claim: that because the Lord is his shepherd, he lacks nothing; he wants for nothing. All his needs are met by the Shepherd.

The background of this is the ancient middle-eastern shepherd who cared for a small flock of sheep – perhaps 30 or 40. He knew them each by name and they followed him. The shepherd provided for the sheep and protected them. As long as they followed the shepherd and followed his directions, they had their every need taken care of and they were safe from both robbers and wild animals.

When Christians today trust and follow Jesus the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for us, we also have all our needs met. We need to ensure that the LORD is our Shepherd. We must surrender all to him and totally depend on him. When we do so, we will find all our needs met by him.

Jesus goes on to reiterate the same principle: Matthew 6:33-34 Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. ³⁴ Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

As we take a break from routine over January and then look to the start of a new year, I pray that we will all walk more closely with Jesus and know the joy of resting and revelling in his great provision.

May it be that you, with King David, can increasingly and confidently proclaim: "the Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing."

May our Psalm 23 sermons be a blessing to you – and happy new year!

Please Pray

Pray for those who are unwell or facing/recovering from surgery presently: Wendy Channing-Pearce, Graham Birch.

Pray for a whole range of summer camps and other Christian ministry taking place over the holidays – that the Lord will draw many to himself.

Remember our mission partners over January – for Nathan and Diane Lovell, Margie Grainger, our SU Chaplains, and Steffan and Eliane and the Bush Ministry Fund.

Ask that God would be at work to make his name known in Noosa. Pray that as a church we will embrace and continually live out our purpose: that “we exist to glorify God by making disciples as we love and serve Noosa.” May 2019 see many more people become disciples of Jesus and grow in their relationship with him.

Pray that the Lord will raise up for us a new associate minister and youth and children’s minister.

Pray for Fiona Thompson and family—that Fiona will rest well and be refreshed in her holidays with good family time. Thank the Lord for her gracious and servant-hearted ministry in the office.

Commit the new year to the Lord in prayer – that our church will continue to grow and flourish – all to the glory of God. Pray that you will grow in your love and understanding of God and His Word in 2019.
